WEBINAR

INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE
AND AVAILABLE SUPPORTS

November 10, 1:30 p.m. AST

Zoom

Register: Info@CaregiversNS.org

Learn about:

- How to recognize IPV
- How to support someone who might be experiencing abuse
- Role transition houses play in providing safe and confidential support

Speaker: Krystal Lowe

Education & Prevention Lead at the Transition House Association of Nova Scotia.

She leads the development and delivery of province-wide evidence-based, trauma- and violence-informed education and training focused on the prevention of gender-based violence, with a particular focus on intimate partner and domestic violence.

We will also learn about the CAN-CARE research project by Dalhousie and University of New Brunswick, aiming to learn about spouse and partner caregivers' experiences of violence while caregiving, and how they can be supported.

THANS

Caregivers Nova Scotia
for friends and family giving care